The Royal Parks Charitable Objects

Our charitable objects set out the main purpose of the charity, and what we aim to achieve.

They are:

- to protect, conserve, maintain and care for the Royal Parks, including their natural and designed landscapes and built environment, to a high standard consistent with their historic, horticultural, environmental and architectural importance;
- to promote the use and enjoyment of the Royal Parks for public recreation, health and well-being including through the provision of sporting and cultural activities and events which effectively advance the objects;
- to maintain and develop the biodiversity of the Royal Parks, including the protection of their wildlife and natural environment, together with promoting sustainability in the management and use of the Royal Parks;
- to support the advancement of education by promoting public understanding of the history, culture, heritage and natural environment of the Royal Parks and (by way of comparison) elsewhere;
- to promote national heritage including by hosting and facilitating ceremonies of state or of national importance within and in the vicinity of the Royal Parks.

Corporate objectives / priorities

Our corporate objectives are approved by our Board of Trustees and set out the high-level plans for the charity which help guide specific projects and pieces of work.

They are currently being considered by The Royal Parks Board of Trustees.
